TIGERS-SPARTANS CLASH IN BIG GAME OF THE SEASON

By NORM HARRIS

The "BIG GAME" of the independent football powers, the San Jose State Spartans and the College of the Pacific Tigers, will be played tomorrow night at 8:00 in Spartan Stadium. The traditional battle between the two arch rivals holds the key to success for the season for both the Spartans and the Tigers.

A week long siege of campus feuding and fussing with insults and accusations being hurled by both schools at random has brought enthusiasm on both campuses to a fever pitch.

Pacific's rivalry with the Spartans dates back to 1921, with San Jose holding a decided edge in the series. The Prune City team has won 14, lost seven and three games have ended in standoffs. Twelve times in meetings between the last two remaining major independent teams on the west coast the winning margin has been one touchdown or less.

San Jose's "jinx" over the Bengals for the past 21 years has been phenomenal. Since 1932 the Tigers have managed but two wins while the Spartans have come out on top 14 times and there have been two ties. Pacific's pair of victories came in 1947, 14-0, and in 1949, 45-7.

Last year the Spartans upset one touchdown favored COP, 26-21 with a touchdown in the final 24 seconds of play. Only once in the past six years has the favored team won the game.

The San Jose State Spartans enter the game favored by the odds-makers as one touchdown favorites.

The Spartans have a well-balanced attack with Larry Mathews at one halfback slot, Jerry Taylor, a boy who more than held his own against a potent California Bear squad, at fullback, and Pat Hiram, who ruined COP's chance at winning last year with a sizzling 47 yard run in the last 24 seconds of play, at the other halfback post.

At quarterback the chores are fairly well divided between Larry Rice, Bob Reinhart, and Benny Pierce. Pierce will probably get the starting call this weekend off his powerful running from the Spit-T which gives the quarterback a chance to become another running threat in the backfield.

Saturday night will mark the fourth time this season the Bengals have run into a team which features the split T style of attack. In the previous three contests with split T teams, the men of "Moose" Myers have given up 76 points — 22 to Tulsa, 34 to Texas Tech and 20 to Marquette. All of which has prompted Myers to predict that his team will have to score at least four times if the Tigers are to get in the win column this time.

In the overall series, the Tigers have averaged only 12 points per game against San Jose State's stern defenses and since World War II, Pacific has manufactured only 94 points in seven years.

In the same seven year period, San Jose has produced but 93 points but still has managed to win four, lose two and tie one.

To get his four touchdowns necessary to keep the Bengals in the ball game, Myers will rely on

Budget Passed By Senate, Funds Allocated

The PSA senate gave final approval to the 1953-54 PSA budget after much debate at the senate meeting last Monday night.

Approval had been withheld on the amounts allocated to forensics, radio, and the rally committee pending submission of a budget for the activity and explanation of the need for the amount requested. These activities finally were approved an amount close to the one asked for.

The following are the percentages of the total PSA budget allocated to each activity. The estimated sum of money to be used this year is approximately $26,000.

College Deferment Test Is November 19

Selective Service officials today reminded college students that the deadline for submitting applications for the November 19 Selective Service College Qualification Test is midnight November 2 (Monday), and that applications postmarked after that time cannot be considered. Local boards have an adequate supply of test application blanks on hand for draft-eligible students.

Students are to mail their completed applications to Educational Testing Service of Princeton, New Jersey.

To be eligible to apply for the college qualification test a student must (1) intend to request deferment as a student; (2) be satisfactorily pursuing a full-time course of instruction; and (3) must not have previously taken the Selective Service College Qualification Test.

Senior Activities

Senior activities, class projects, social functions and material pertaining to graduation will be discussed at the meetings set by the executive committee of the class for the week of November 9 through November 13. It was thought that varied schedule would be given at the living groups to enable the 109 off-campus seniors to attend as well as the 101 living on the campus.

The schedule for the week is:

Monday:
5:00 at Tau Kappa Kappa
7:00 at Rhizomia
Tuesday:
7:00 at Alpha Theta Tau
Thursday
7:00 at West Hall
7:30 at Epsilon Lambda Sigma with Archania
10:00 South Hall

Dr. Baker Seriously Injured In Crash

Dr. Alonzo Baker, College of the Pacific professor of Political Science, is recovering from a serious automobile accident which he was involved in last Friday. He received treatment at the Fresno Veterans Hospital for a fractured right thigh bone and severe facial lacerations following the accident that occurred on highway 99 north of Fresno, Friday afternoon. The instructor was en route to Visalia where he was to be the speaker for the Tulare County Teachers Association. His car struck a concrete abutment when, Dr. Baker said later, he must have dozed at the wheel. He required more than fifty stitches in his face and head and also underwent an operation last Tuesday for the fractured bone condition.

Dr. Baker is known as an authority on Current World Affairs, in which field he often is called on as a speaker, as well as a provocative news commentator on the radio.

Dr. Baker's classes will be taken over by outside speakers and Dr. Malcolm Eiselen. It is hoped that Dr. Baker will be able to return to his activities in around two weeks.

SENIOR CLASS RINGS

Seniors may now purchase their class rings at the P.S.A. office on Tuesdays and Thursdays between the hours of 11 and 1. For any further information see Alan Rains or Pat McAllister.

Boom.....

A word might well be mentioned at this time concerning the air raid drill held last Tuesday morning. Generally speaking, the student response was markedly improved compared to previous years. However, many students either ignored the bomb drill completely or stood around amiably chatting by the levee when a dodge for cover might have been more appropriate.

It is easier than not to disregard warnings as these; the threat of an atom bomb drill is negligible. However, it could happen. The student should know exactly where to go if for no other reason than to enhance his personal information.

The PACIFIC WEEKLY has turned down a request to print on a softer paper.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor:

The only "constructive" thought given in the letter submitted by the holder of Student Body Card No. 310, who apparently knows Christofer Fry quite well judging from his knowing remarks, was probably the laughs the Student Body got out of reading his musty portrayal of the vengeful critic.

The inaccurate viewpoint, poorly concealed by not too subtle remarks such as "humorously stereotyped" (which, when analyzed, can be found quite equivocal), was untimely, due to the fact that Mr. Student Body Card No. 310 used extremely poor judgment by basing his views on the opening night's performance. Even so, I was told by the "bourgeois babblings" of several students that the performance was very good. After having seen the play, I find that my conscience compels me to agree with these "churlish people" who enjoyed to the fullest measure its delightful charm.

As to the selection of the play—

The literary value (which Mr. 310, obviously "stereotyping" Mr. Bennett, so heartily dislikes) of the play was typical of Christofer Fry, who is commonly known as the modern Shakespeare. Mr. Fry is not in the habit of writing plays for the simple comprehension of those of us who wish to take the trouble (and who have the ability) to analyze his works. Any theatrical company can do a good job on a light, trite, farce. However, very few can successfully do a comedy which depends entirely upon a play of words.

It hardly surprises me that No. 310 enjoyed the tango scene, which can be found by every scatter-brained movie goer in most of the aborted musical comedies.

I believe that DeMarcus Brown deserves a pat on the back for his masterful presentation of so challenging a selection — challenging to both the cast and to the audience.

Signed,
Student Body Card No. 79

Dear Editor:

I have noticed that many of the female students on campus have been wearing peddle-pushers, especially in the dining hall where everybody and anybody must know they are strictly taboo. Another thing which has been seen on campus and in the cafeteria is pincurls under bandanas. These two rules have become a tradition at College of Pacific and it has been left more or less up to the integrity of the girls to see that they are followed. Partly because of these rules we have received a reputation as an especially "nice looking" school. It seems to me if the girls on campus wish this reputation to remain with C.O.P. it would be a good idea if they discontinued wearing peddle-pushers and pincurls. Hoping the looks of the campus improve, I remain,

Studentbody Card Holder 477

P. S. Remember, girls, most boys don't like the looks of females in peddle-pushers and pincurls. And, by the way, do you?

WEST HALL INITIATES FALL OFFICIALS

West Hall has initiated its new officers for the fall semester. Highlighting the ceremony were two girls who entertained the group. Jane Tornquist sang and Joan Keagy gave a humorous monologue.

The officers for West Hall are the following: President, Carol Agajan; Vice President, Marty Probert; Secretary, Ruth Dow; Treasurer, Darlene Olson; Historian, Arlene Dickenson.

The class representatives were elected at a more recent house-meeting. Chosen to represent their respective classes were the following: Freshmen, Rosemary Ash; Sophomores, Liz Laskin; Juniors, Kathy Holeman; Seniors, Nancy Hall and Della Schmaus.

Omega Phi, Alpha Thete Hold Exchange Dinner

Last Wednesday evening the men of Omega Phi entertained the ladies of Alpha Thete at an exchange dinner. Chairmen of the affair were Bob Spiekerman and Nancy Abbott. The dinner, which began at 5:30, was an informal affair, served in buffet style. Entertainment was given by the pledges of the two houses, who combined their efforts for a typical pledge performance. Nevertheless, a rousing good time was had by all.

Concert-Meeting Is Scheduled By Phi Mu

Beta Pi chapter of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, national honorary music fraternity, invites all male music students of the College of the Pacific and Stockton College to attend a concert-meeting on Monday, November 9, at 7:30 p.m. at the Anderson Y Center upstairs.

The short program will present members of the local chapter, including a trombone solo by Sam Kamilos; a clarinet trio consisting of Bud Behrens, Wayne Morrill, and Ray Lippert; and an original composition, "Sonatina for Clarinet," written and performed by Bud Behrens. Master of ceremonies will be Charles "Chuck" LaMond, of recent night club fame, but at present Professor of Piano at the College Conservatory, who may consent to render a number or two on the piano.

Refreshments will round out the evening. All male music majors are invited, as well as those interested or participating in musical activities in COP or Stockton College.

Learning To Live Alone--Chapel Topic

"Learning to Live Alone" will be the subject which the Rev. Paul Baird has chosen for a topic at next Tuesday's Chapel service. Rev. Baird is Executive of Christian Education for the Northern Division of the Presbyterian Church, as well as the Chairman of the Board of Education of the State Council of Churches.

Student leader for the service will be Vernon Shinn. The Women's Choir, directed by Mr. Arthur Holton, will contribute the music to the chapel service.

Following the eleven o'clock chapel, Rev. Baird will have a luncheon discussion in the Anderson "Y" den with those students who are interested.

Anderson Y Members Holds Fireside Chat

Dr. Edwin Ding's home was the gathering place for the Faculty Fireside this week. Last Monday night ten members of Anderson "Y" attended the faculty fireside meeting at which Dr. Ding spoke on the topic, "The Four Emphases—Not creed but Christ, Not denomination but demonstration, Not negativism but positivism, Not Christian fellow but Christian fellowship." The discussion covered such points as the qualities of Eastern and Western religions and the present position of Communism in China. Following the discussion, refreshments were served.

The next faculty fireside will be at the home of Miss Martha Pierce on Wednesday, November 18. Miss Pierce, English professor, is an authority in the field of dramatic literature and will probably give the groups some information on her summer three-months tour of England.

Students interested in participating in following faculty firesides may inquire at the Anderson "Y" office.

The future looks bright at KCVN! The quartet of typewriters you have been hearing as you pass the station are being beaten by ambitious inhabitants within the studio. Mark Blinoff is writing scripts this semester for "Pacific Playhouse" and will produce them next semester. Meanwhile, George Miley is producing "Pacific Playhouse" and presenting half hour shows which star such talented people as Don West, Dave Greive, Pat Boyer, Nadine Reasoner, Dick Rea, Joyce Lellman and Mark Blinoff. Another new series entitled "This is the Story," produced by Don West, will feature our able Paul Lerew narrating these strange tales. Speaking of stories, is "The Prince of Foxes" familiar to you? Dr. Sam Shellabarger wrote this book and also recently completed "Lord Vanity." Don West will interview the author on "Pacific Notebook."

"Headlines in Chemistry." Here, at last, is a program which the average person can enjoy and understand. That is, you don't have to be Joe Chemist in order to get your bearings. This show will be intriguing for everyone. Interviewing Ken Tatton will be Dave Greive on "Headlines in Chemistry."

A crew of five people brushed up on the alphabet last week in an attempt to organize our music files. Over a period of about four years the cards became rather scattered and one would be lead to believe that "a" no longer

Student Teachers Attend Workshop

The Northern Regional Workshop Conference for the California Student Teachers Association was held last Saturday at Sacramento State College. It was attended by Marilyn Moore, President; Jane Nelson, Vice-President; Barbara Hills, Treasurer; Carol Goodwin, Membership Chairman and Phillip Gehman, State Ethics Chairman.

These delegates brought back many new suggestions and ideas which they conveyed to their local chapter at a meeting held on Wednesday, November 4. This meeting was patterned after the Sacramento workshop, in that small group discussions were held regarding the total program of CSTA.

Future plans of the chapter include a Christmas party for speech and music therapy clinic children.

as from the executive committee to the members of the senior class has always been one of the main interferences with a smoothly running class," states Al Rains, President. To facilitate this, the executive committee is proposing representatives chosen from the class to meet with the executive committee and carry information back to their portion of the class.

The details for this and other means of getting the proper material from the class officers to each graduating member of the student body are to be discussed at these meetings.

PARTY TIME

Among the activities to be discussed are the functions such as dances, parties and get-togethers. Tentative plans for a benefit dance sponsored by the class as well as hay rides, and boat trips will be brought to the attention of those attending. There are also included plans for a senior week which may take in a dance, variety show, lottery and possible ditch day.

RINGS AND THINGS

Rings for the class will be shown at these group meetings along with the new COP recognition pins. It was decided that a closer preview of this jewelry is very advisable. The rings are now on sale at the P.S.A. office by the Treasurer Pat McCallister on Tuesday and Thursday from 11 - 1.

The Executive committee urges all the senior members to attend one of these meetings as it is one of the important meetings of the year. They suggest that if you can not attend for some reason please contact Pres. Al Rains at Archania 2-9405 or Secretary Sharon Kelly at Epsilon 2-9218 during the week so the necessary information may be relayed to you.

Movie Queen Picks J. Russell Bodley

How many of you knew that the famous movie star Janet Leigh once graced our campus? Known then as Jeanette Reames, a member of Alpha Theta Tau, Janet Leigh attended classes here at Pacific for three years.

And for those of you who have wondered why we dug up this priceless bit of information, pay attention:

In the current issue of "Movie Spotlight," Janet Leigh has selected a list of the ten most fascinating men she has known.

Sandwiched somewhere in between Van Johnson and Jerry Lewis in that list is none other than College of Pacific's J. Russell Bodley.

J. RUSSELL BODLEY

Said the beautiful star about Bodley: "I've never known anyone with such love for his work and because of this he gave so much to his students. I had to audition for him for the A Cappella Choir. I liked to sing though I knew I didn't have a great voice. But he accepted me, encouraged me, gave me confidence. He was absolutely fair and never kidded me about how good a voice I had, and he appreciated the fact that I worked hard. I'll always remember him."

Mr. Bodley was given an applauding ovation in class when the news was told of his selection by the former co-ed. Blushing furiously, Mr. Bodley averred, "Well, at least I beat out Jerry Lewis!"

Now married to movie star Tony Curtis, during her three years at school here, the former Jeanette Morrison was married to Stan Reames.

"Vinegar Tree" Next Week-end

The modern comedy "The Vinegar Tree" by Paul Osborn will be presented November 12, 13, 14 by the all-freshman cast and crew in Pacific's Studio Theatre. Curtain time is 8:00; tickets are on sale at 60c for students and 80c for adults.

The cast is: Laura Merrick, Pat Howes; Augustus Merrick, Fred Kellogg; Leone Merrick, Shirley Trump; Winnifred Mansfield, Joan Keagy; Max Lawrence, Fred Olson; Geoffry Cole, Lyman MacPherson; Louise, Lois La Bonte.

The crew members are: stage manager, Dorothy Hooker; electrician, Rusty Straub; properties, Joyce Blatnic and Joan Ellingson; sound, Patty Lou Lloyd; wardrobe, Marianne Tuttle and Nance O'Neil; publicity, Sally Post.

San Jose State Freshmen Eleven Trip Crew of 'Iron Men' Bengal Juniors, 6-0

Speedy Spartan Halfback Don Armstrong returned a College of Pacific punt 46 long yards to pay dirt with 7:22 left in the final quarter to sink C.O.P.s Frosh Football debut 6 to 0.

Five hundred and fifty die-hard fans witnessed a battle marred by 20 fumbles. Pacific bobbled the pigskin eleven times, the alert Spartans coming up with eight of the recoveries. This in essence was the deciding difference between the two clubs.

With only 15 players available for action, Coach Chuck Melick's charges had seven players go the full sixty minutes. In the second half the Junior Bengals stopped the Spartans four times within their own 15 yard line.

GREEN GOES

The game's leading ground gainer was Pacific's Right Half Tom Green of Long Beach, who rambled 72 yards on ten carries.

San Jose amassed 201 yards rushing and 69 passing for a total offense of 270 yards. The Bengals totaled 164 yards, 144 rushing and 20 passing.

After the game, Coach Melick said he was pleased with the performances of his two guards, Gary Lind of Merced and Frank Montabana of San Francisco, and he also singled out Fullback Gale Laack of Abbotsford, Wis., for his hard running.

tiger's den

By LARRY ALLIN

The high point of most any fan or players football season is when the Alma Mater's varsity puts on its pads and digs its cleats into the runway and comes boiling onto the field for that "traditional" one.

Tomorrow night Captain Lowell Herbert will lead his College of Pacific Football Varsity mates into that game that always spells "Homecoming" for the sons and daughters of Sparta.

It's interesting to see the specter of the old Jinx sitting on the Pacific Bench even before the team takes the field but, as always, he'll be there. The Tigertown team has only taken two of the last eighteen contests.

In 1951 when San Jose was in its worst football doldrums in years the Golden Raiders managed only to win two games, Fresno State and Pacific. The Tigers played most of the game inside the Spartans' 20 and failed to score. The final score 7-0.

Cecil Harp will have cause to remember that game. It was his first year with the Varsity. Try as he might he couldn't crack it over from his fullback spot, old Mister Jinx had him on every play.

Coach John Rhode remembers the night in the Lodi Grape Bowl in '48 when the Grinning Jinx in the person of referee Frank Powers did the Tiger out of at least a 14-14 tie. Excellent Ed LeBaron faked a handoff to full John Polous who was stopped right then. LeBaron then passed the ball downfield to end Roy Kirstien who caught it on the SJS 25 and started on his way. Ref Powers ruled the ball dead where Polous was stopped!!!

Referee Powers' classic remark, "I LOST THE BALL." Pacific lost the game!

Many of the men of the Orange and Black who will take the field tomorrow night will remember the trick of the Jinx last year when Halfback Hiram of the Spartans ran a T.D. over in the last 26 seconds.

The Jinx has cause to leer, while Pacific has come out on the end of a 7-14-3 record in the series the Tiger has managed to chalk up 286 points to the Spartans' 246.

Head Coach Jack Meyers has been too busy lately burning the midnight oil on his own homework to notice the Jinx. It seems "The Moose" has turned "literari" on us and has written a book entitled "HOW TO BEAT SAN JOSE." It is a modest tome, hardly more than two score pages, but it has become a best seller with the varsity. Word has it that the Tigers are prepared to demonstrate all of author Meyer's postulates tomorrow.

Ascending to the rosy heights we view the time honored dream that although such stalwarts as Ottoson and Buck, Jacobs and Liebscher, Doshier and Timms will do their usual best, some little back who "hasn't had a chance" will go out and win the Big One in the last minutes of play. We may stick our necks out, but don't be surprised if a fellow who hasn't been listed on any of this season's programs turns in a performance that might be called spectacular tomorrow night.

The Jinx breakers number ? You'll see it at the game tomorrow night.

Dust Bowl Reclamation

The Faculty and its subordinate committees have recently joined the ranks of the Campus Wide planners for the coming Arbour Day. The plans for the planting of "The Dust Bowl" are his ace passing combination of Quarterback Roy Ottoson to Right End Ken Buck a great deal. With Ottoson hitting 43 passes for 557 yards and Buck catching 31 tosses for 436, the Tigers have managed to stay up around the leaders in the nation for team passing throughout 1953.

The two seniors from Paso Robles have had to carry much of the load, as Pacific's usually potent running game has not measured up to previous years. In Art Liebscher, Al Dattola, and Jim Conover, the Bengals have fine running backs but the lack of size and depth in the Bengal forward wall has worked to the rushing game's disadvantage. For the sixth time in seven games this year the Tigers will go to the post outweighed considerably up front.

The Tigers will be given a rousing send-off tomorrow morning as they leave from in front of the Gym by chartered bus for San Jose.

Sweet To Welcome Basketball Players

Varsity basketball coach Van Sweet welcomes to official practice Nov. 1st, 14 basketball players who will be trying for the 12 man varsity. Among the new faces on the hardwood for the Bengals are Al Mangin 6' 4", Clyde Connor 6' 3", both from San Mateo J.C., big Ron DeVight 6' 6", center from West Contra Costa J.C., and speedy Jack Keith 6' 2", guard from the state Kingpins Sequoia J.C.

ALL CONFERENCE

Coming over from Stockton Jaycee are Bruce Harkness 6' 4" Don Buckman 6' 2" and All Big Seven player Nick Romanoff. Romanoff, who is 6' 7" tall was one of the highest scorers in Northern California last year, and was one of the most sought after basketballers in the state.

Only one letter man is returning so far, and he is Dale Clipper 6' 1" forward.

BUCK BACK

Ken Buck, another letterman, is expected to join the team after football season. Up from last year's Frosh team are Lyman Saltzer 6' 4", Howard Silva 6' 4", Ron Stark 6', Cesare Ciatti 5' 11", John Thompson 6' 2" and Vince Gomez 5' 7".

RHIZITES TAKE CROWN NEW CHAMPS!!

Rhizomia winning two consecutive games, 38-0 against Archania, and 20-0 against Omega Phi, boomed to the Intramural Championship Tuesday afternoon at Baxter Stadium.

The highlight of the deciding tussle was when Dick DeCristofaro picked off a flat pass and ran 95 yards to a TD. A great game was played by the entire squad consisting of Bob Hietman, Jim Huth, Bob Giardini, Al Culp, Bill Lawton, Dick DeCristofaro, Rocco Costanza, Jack Green, Len Harrington, Anthony Bertilocchi, Bill Graziani, and Leroy Carney.

TANKERS ROLL OVER IMPOTENT COMPTON

Last Saturday morning the Tiger Tankers chalked up another win, this time at the expense of always powerful Compton JC. In a well played game, the Tigers tipped in 11 points against the ineffective but unceasing drives of Compton JC that netted but four tallies.

Named player of the week was Dick Avalia, a transfer student from San Francisco City College and former goal Keeper of the Stockton College Mustangs for the 1951 season. Dick is an outstanding goalie as well as a good right or left guard. Last week's game was kept on ice by his management in the cage against the several scoring attempts of the Compton JC men.

Coming up tomorrow, Pacific's tankers travel to San Jose along with everyone else, but not for football; they tackle the Spartans in the State pool at three o'clock.

Idle Tigers Still First "Paso" Combo Takes Drop

Although idle last week-end College of the Pacific retained its leadership of the nation in forward passing. In six games the Tigers have completed 71 passes which were good for 994 yards and eight touchdowns. They have an average of 165.7 yards per game. Stanford, currently leading the PCC, is in the number two spot.

Carson of Georgia leads the nation in pass receiving, but close behind is Ken Buck of Pacific. Carson in seven games has caught 33 passes which were good for 473 yards and two touchdowns. Buck in six games has caught 31 passes which were good for 436 yards and three touchdowns.

In forward passing Roy Ottoson is 13th in the nation with 43 completions in 86 attempts for a 50% average and 547 yards. The skipper has thrown three touchdown passes.

Marquette's Ace QB SHOCKEY (19) gets an unidentified Tiger back's shoe lace as A. D. WILLIAMS (82) and unidentified linemen uncork their best in blocks that enabled the Pacific backfield to tie highly touted Marquette two weeks ago.

Coach Of The Week Player of the Week

The "Big Man" responsible for the formation of the front wall on Pacific's "53" machine is John "Nick" Nickevich. "Nick" started life 28 years ago in Long Beach, California, attended Wilmington High of Los Angeles, and served in the Navy for three years aboard an aircraft carrier.

Entering UCLA in 1946, he played four years at guard on the mighty Bruin football team, being a member of the 1946 Rose Bowl squad. "Nick" received All-American honors in 1947 and in 1948. Other collegiate athletics saw Nikkevich participating on the Rugby squad, and making history in boxing by capturing the Pacific Coast heavyweight championship in 1947. "Nick" was a graduate student coach at UCLA in 1950 under Red Saunders, from there he went to Idaho University for two seasons before heading for C.O.P.

A unanimous vote of the entire student body elected the former "Carlota Flash," Manuel Borges, as this week's "Player of the Week." Manny, who is the manager of the football squad received the award with his usual casualness. The "crew cut" Borges was voted this honor due to his fine work in keeping the ball-players well supplied with "needys."

During the Marquette trip, Borges, who is a talented singer, kept the boys from being homesick with his western ballads.

Borges was presented with the usual toothpaste and sterling plastic toothbrush and a three year subscription to 3D comic magazines. Manny was the former basketball manager last season and now holds down the secretarial port for Omega Phi Alpha fraternity.
